“ I have such wonderful memories of Dorothy. Joan and James Empey included me in several great activities with Joan's mother who always amazed me with her memory and stamina. I was always astounded that she knew who I was even though we did not see each other often. She had such an extended family who loved her dearly. An amazing woman who will be missed by many!

“ My first time meeting Dorothy was when Bill and I and baby Paul arrived at 11pm at their house when Paul was 15 days old. I thought they knew we were coming, but they didn't. Dorothy took me into her heart, and her life. She became a Mom to me, teaching me at my young age of 19 how to be a mother. I am forever changed and touched, and made a better person because of her love in my life. I so love you Dorothy. Love forever, Joni ❤️
