

Marilou W. Ormond

June 16, 2026

Marilou W. Ormond, 89, of North Syracuse, departed this world to join her beloved husband, Tom.

Born and raised in Syracuse, she attended Valley High School and later enjoyed a career at Royal Insurance, from which she retired. However, her most cherished role was as a loving mother to her children and a doting grandmother to her three grandchildren, whom she also helped raise. Nothing gave her greater joy than spending time with them.

Her kindness extended far beyond family. Known affectionately as “Mom O,” she became a second mother to many of her children's friends, who will fondly remember her warmth and legendary collection of salt and pepper shakers.

In her final days, Marilou was surrounded by those who were honored to return the comfort, care, and devotion she had so generously given throughout her life. The family would also like to thank the PACE caregivers at Malta House, especially Danae, Debbie, and Tina, whose support was immeasurable.

In addition to her parents and husband, Marilou was predeceased by her brother, John “Jack” Woolverton, and her sister, Lois Maira. Surviving are her daughter and son-in-law, Cindy Ormond and Tim Shattuck, and their daughter, Kayleigh; her son, Eric Ormond, his wife, Michelle, and their children, Cassidy and Caleb; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, and members of the extended Kozlowski and Shattuck families, all of whom she loved dearly.

Calling hours will be held on Wednesday, June 24, from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Fergerson Funeral Home in North Syracuse.

A service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, June 25, at Plymouth Congregational Church, 232 East Onondaga Street, Syracuse, where Marilou was a faithful member and volunteer. Donations may be made in her memory to this historic church, whose mission of compassion and love mirrors the defining qualities of our beloved "Lou-Lou."
